

Media Craze!

Directions: As you go through the Time Tunnel find the media referenced in the images below either in the display cases or on the wall and answer the questions.

1939:

Media Type	Describe what this is and who its main audience was.	What was happening during the war when this was made?	What impact did this have for people on the home front?
Popeye

1940:

Media Type	Describe what this is and who its main audience was.	What was happening during the war when this was made?	What impact did this have for people on the home front?
Comics
Knute Rokne

1941:

Media Type	Describe what this is and who its main audience was.	What was happening during the war when this was made?	What impact did this have for people on the home front?
1941 Plymouth
1941 Baseball Season

1942:

Media Type	Describe what this is and who its main audience was.	What was happening during the war when this was made?	What impact did this have for people on the home front?
Joe Louis
Coca- Cola

1943:

Media Type	Describe what this is and who its main audience was.	What was happening during the war when this was made?	What impact did this have for people on the home front?
Children's Uniforms
Rosie the Riveter

1944:

Media Type	Describe what this is and who its main audience was.	What was happening during the war when this was made?	What impact did this have for people on the home front?
Roosevelt's D-Day Radio Address
G. I. Bill

1945:

Media Type	Describe what this is and who its main audience was.	What was happening during the war when this was made?	What impact did this have for people on the home front?
Post War Fashion

