

Picture Identification:

Directions: As you make your way through the time tunnel, match the image to the description!

A. 	_____ These were displayed to make a statement that a person from a home or business was serving in the war or had died while overseas. * Bonus: Explain the different meanings:
B. 	_____ These can be seen all around the Time Tunnel. Every week a new version was produced and it was a way for information about the war to be brought home to Americans.
C. 	_____ This product was spread across 44 countries. When America entered the war, servicemen could buy this product anywhere in the world for only $.05. This product became a patriotic symbol for Americans.
D. 	_____ This event took place in Hawaii. After this event, the United States officially entered World War II fight both in Europe and the Pacific.
E. 	_____ This was designed to make the Armed Forces more mobile. These were eventually sent to Britain and Russia as part of the lend-lease program in an effort to share information and resources.
F. 	_____ This picture came to represent a female war worker during World War II. Although this image was not widely known in the United States at the time, this picture represented what life was like for women during the war and the need for them to work in factories.
G. 	_____ This event's theme was called "A World of Tomorrow" with products that focused on better technology to make life easier. This was an event visited by people from all over the world as a way to share the successes in technology.